

Events During Academic Year 2014

An awareness Road Safety program was organized by the regional transport office, Electronic City, Bangalore. The in and around school and college bus drivers had participated in the road safety awareness program nearly 800 drivers had attended the program and were educated regarding the safety measures to be taken while driving considering the life of the students.

Vasan Eye Care, Bannerghatta road had arranged for a free eye screening camp on 13th and 14th of February. As many as 350 students, teaching and non-teaching faculties of our college and AMC school children, PU college and hotel management students were also benefited by the program.

Voluntary blood donation camp was organized on 7th April, organized by Lion's Club, Jnabharathi, Bangalore. 450 voluntary blood donors had donated blood on that event.

On the event of College Day program, inauguration of the function was started by planting a sapling by Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam on 2nd May. There were nearly 5000 students of our college and other colleges who had witnessed the program.

On 10th October, World Mental Health Day was organized by the advocates, judge and the police department of Anekal. Nearly 350 volunteers had participated in this program.

An AIDS awareness program was conducted by the District Govt. Hospital of Anekal. 350 students and volunteers were involved in this program to create an awareness.

